SUMMARY

I took up multimedia design about an year ago, when i started my education at BAAA. I had no experience in the multimedia sphere beforehand. I expanded my general knowledge to a certain extend and quickly defined that my field of interest is front-end development.

Working on various small projects i kept gaining knoweldge about different programming langauges and consepts. At first I used to operate with HTML and CSS. Later on i took up Javascript. Currently i can fluently work with HTML, CSS, Javascript and React.js.
